

HIGH STEPPING HONOR

Billy T Haynes, Kentucky's oldest and longest active basketball official, was recognized for his 62nd year of officiating at the Kentucky High School Championships in Rupp Arena. The 82-year-old refereed 91 games this season and did a high-step kick at center court before receiving the recognition.

MAKING THE ROUNDS

A number of Hoop Historians were active across the country this past month at various sporting events. Fred Allman was in Arizona at the World Baseball Classic. Dave DeGrace followed his beloved Marquette Golden Eagles to Columbus, Ohio at the NCAA Tournament. And Tom Tallarito was back to his annual seat at the sports book in Las Vegas for the first weekend of March Madness.

There will be plenty of trivia and giveaways, which will highlight the Hoop Historians Annual Meeting on Saturday, April 1 at 10:00 a.m. at the Hampton Inn Houston Downtown, 710 Crawford Street. Election of Officers and New Members will also take place at this meeting.

HOOP HISTORIANS PHOTO GALLERY

Send your pictures to: hoophistorians@hotmail.com

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH: Nancy and Al Sack traveled to Boulder, Colorado to see the Buffaloes and the Bruins play.

IT MUST BE SPRING: Kevin, Rachel and John McCann were at Diablo Stadium in Tempe to take in the White Sox and Angels.

I'VE GOT SPIRIT, HOW ABOUT YOU: Hersh Cherson poses with the UCLA spirit squad at the Pac-12 Tournament.

LET IT SNOW: Joe Spagnolo, Frank Wilson, Cath Wilson and Al Sack spent a day north of the Bay amongst nature's winter-like elements.

LOVE THE SHIRT: Don MacKay has had a busy month working Miami Marlins and Colorado Rockies Spring Training games at Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida.

SIN CITY: Al Sack and Joe Spagnolo watched the NCAA Regional game between UCLA and Gonzaga at T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas.

SEE YOU IN HOUSTON