

“WHAT THE HOOP HISTORIANS DID ON THEIR SUMMER VACATION”

School may be back in session, but the Hoop Historians didn't do much resting during another busy summer!

WE'VE GONE CAMPING

John Mayberry (middle) worked two weeks of basketball camps and had time to reminisce with fellow Hoop Historian (left) Frank Wilson about their days in Cincinnati. The twosome were hosts of Nancy and Al Sack (right). Also on the Camp and Clinic Tour this summer was another Hoop Historian, Vern Vegso, who worked the nationally renowned Five Star Basketball Camp at Baylor University in Waco, Texas. More than 360 participants in Five Star Camps have gone on to play in the NBA.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

TRAVELING ACROSS AMERICA

Kim Tours & Travel took 120 Californians to the USC-Virginia college football season opener in Charlottesville. The group saw a 52-7 victory for the nation's top ranked Trojans and visited Monticello (above) and some of the historic sites of Virginia. Joining Dorothy & Surl Kim were Hoop Historians Al Sack, Joe Spagnolo and Frank Wilson.

SHE'S A REAL DOLL

Hoop Historian Pat Irvine enjoyed a week in Las Vegas at the annual National Doll Club Convention and saw some of the sights and sounds of the entertainment capital of the world. Pat also got to visit for a 30 minute conversation with all-time hit king Pete Rose while in Vegas. Pat is the sister of New York Yankees great Billy Martin.

AND THEY'RE OFF...

Some members of the Chicago contingent of the Hoop Historians gathered for an outing at Arlington Park racetrack and received a behind the scenes tour from Friend of the Hoop Historians Rick Watson. Also in attendance were Linda and Brian Burmeister, Barb and Ted Reinking, Jan and Bob Stan; Bill Carsley, Marianne Parrillo and Joe Spagnolo.
