

BY-LAWS & CONSTITUTION PASSED BY MEMBERSHIP

More than the mandated 75% of the entire membership voted affirmative on the adoption of the Hoop Historians constitution and by-laws. In addition, both policy revisions were adopted as well. Currently the membership is electing a five person Board of Directors. The terms of those members will run through the Annual Meeting of 2010. Results of the election will be posted on the Hoop Historians website, www.hoophistorians.com.

CASHING IN YOUR CHIPS TO SEE THE BRUINS PLAY

Watching a basketball game at the new Pauley Pavilion is going to be a tad more expensive once the new facility opens in 2012. The LA Times reports that the cost of a single season ticket could run as high as $134,000 annually! Some members of the Hoop Historians currently attend home games at UCLA.
