

HISTORIANS ATTEND 2010 MLB ALL-STAR GAME

Hoop Historians Hersh Cherson, Al Sack and Frank Wilson attended this year's Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Anaheim. Al previously attended two other All-Star Games (1960 in New York and in 1989 also in Anaheim). Frank Wilson attended his only other All-Star contest back in 1953 at Cincinnati's Crosley Field.

COACH DENNIS MISHKO: GETTING THE JOB DONE

Coach Dennis Mishko's Elite 18 year old high school basketball team won the championship of the Riverfront College League with a one point victory over the University of Scranton in the championship game. His AAU team also won the New Jersey Shootout at Rider University with a perfect 5-0 record and won four of five games in Las Vegas. Way to go Dennis!

HOOP HISTORIANS JOHN WOODEN TRIBUTE

Be sure to visit the Hoop Historians tribute page to the late Coach John Wooden on our official website at: www.hoophistorians.com/wooden.htm Pictures from the Hoop Historians past interaction with this legend are posted on this site.

MAN OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

We are not sure if he is hailing a cab or directing traffic or calling a foul on the streets of Amsterdam, but our own Ted Reineking (left) is seen here on part of his five country Rhine River boat trip through Europe. The Chairman of the Board of the Hoop Historians and his wife Barb went on the excursion in July.

SEEN ON THE BIG SCREEN

Caught on the big screen at a recent Rancho Cucamonga Minor League Baseball game was Cath & Frank Wilson. The couple watched the Quakes, a minor league affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, play in the High Class "A" California League.

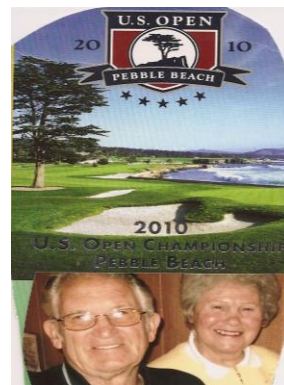

BRUCE ZIEMER: GET WELL WISHES

Get well wishes are in order for Hoop Historian Bruce Ziemer who is recovering from surgery from a broken shoulder he suffered in a fall during the summer months. Bruce, get well soon!

ON THE COURSE AT PEEBLE BEACH

Hoop Historians John Mayberry and Pat Irvine took in the finals of the U.S. Open Golf Championship at Pebble Beach, California with Pat's sister and brother-in-law in June. Graeme McDowell of Northern Ireland captured the event by one stroke.
